Truly as good as it can get with Debbie. Yelpers - thank you so much for helping me find her. I finally got my dogs in to see her. I had to book a month out but I'm glad I waited as I found out, Debbie is absolutely worth such prior planning. WOW.....I could not be more impressed with her ability to work with dogs and her grooming skills. This woman is a dog person through and through. She cares for the dogs - there's no doubt in my mind. I had the pleasure to chat with and watch her and she is a wonderful person with all the dogs that come her way. I will not be going anywhere else anymore now that I've found Debbie.

Now the details of my visit to give you a picture of Debbie. Upon arrival at the salon, my normally (I swear) well-behaved brussels griffon angels transformed into terrible monstrous beasts on a tear, marking up her salon like they had bottomless bladders. Both number 1 and 2 for each of them! I felt so utterly terrible. I thought I had made sure they relieved themselves adequately before we walked in. There were smells galore and other dogs but they just would not stop marking her place up. To her utter credit, Debbie exhibited unbelievable angelic patience with them as they made the salon "theirs", in their minds. My bad bad bad ----they will be getting a walk to wear them out before our next visit. Despite this unmentionable malfeasance by my two brutes, Debbie allowed my little guys to run about free during their 3 hour stay with her.

I also had a chance to watch her as she finished up one of guy's faces after showing up a bit early to pick them up. She was wonderful with him. He is normally a bit skittish with his face but he was calm at her hands and shaver. She has a way, presence and command with dogs.

Also, the nail trim job she gave my two dogs is the best I've ever seen. I've had dogs all my life and been to countless groomers. Both my husband and I took notice of how good of a job she did with our guys' nails. Like my husband (he does interim maintenance nail trimmings on them between groomings), she also uses a dremel but they looked much better than he has ever been able to make them look -- and nice, soft sounds now as they walk on our hardwood floors at home.

The trimming was absolutely excellent in terms of shaping. Their hair was cut with handsome, clean, soft, meticulous lines -- my dogs looked so scrumptiously handsome, beyond their normal winning looks, after she was finished with them. No nicks anywhere (yes, my poor boys have been nicked often which I only usually discover later at home with other groomers). I had asked that she leave their beards which can look awkward but Debbie was able to clip and shape their faces while leaving their old-man-beards so that their faces looked balanced and oh-so-cute.

Ears were clean! We usually clean out their ears with some kleenex while we are lounging with them. I sat down to do the same after their grooming with Debbie and their ears were clean. I normally do this after a grooming and still get dirty kleenex (i know...gross, eh?), but nothing on the kleenex after our visit to Foggy Doggy.

Debbie is exceptional. I rarely have peace of mind when leaving my dogs with anyone. I inherently trust Debbie with my furry babies.

I stopped by to see if she could take my German Shepherd. Debbie took her and was awesome. She was really sweet to her and made the experience really good for her. I think she really liked my dog because I came to find Izzy following her around and so happy. She's really a great groomer!

Debbie is great. She is really patient with the animals and she does a great job. My Weimaraner's nails get trimmed there and she gets the closest to the quick without hitting it. We see her often and I highly recommend Foggy Doggy Grooming.

Foggy Doggy Grooming Salon is great! I dropped off our King Charles Cavalier for her first "full" haircut yesterday and she looks great!! Debbie is extremely nice and welcoming and gave our dog the haircut that we wanted. I HIGHLY recommend Foggy Doggy Grooming Salon, the price is right and the service is excellent!

Debbie is amazing!! She is fabulous with our two dogs, a Yorkie and German Shepherd! My little one gets really bad snarls and he always comes back looking like a show dog. He typically doesn't like new people but he doesn't mind Debbie. The big guy, well he is just big and takes me 3 hours to do at home. But she welcomes them both every time.

Her table is right in front so everyone can see. She is not doing anything shady in the back like some of the other groomers out there. We love her! She's great and I would recommend anyone who has a dog or a cat to go see her! She is reasonably priced too. In fact I would pay more, she's that good.

We LOVE LOVE LOVE Debbie from FOGGY DOGGY...Deb is a # 1 animal lover and that's important.. Our puppies end up looking, feeling, being as smooth as silk.....!!! In between visits to Deb, the "kids" get to drop and roll and kick and dance all they like, at the end of the dusty trail is our gal "Deb".....Great Prices and worth booking in advance to have Deb and Deb alone do the work...We definetley do not prefer Deb to get help ..we like Deb doing our girls as the one and onlyThree WOOFs For Deb..!!...Woof Woof Woof..!!

Deb has been helping me out for years as a referred groomer. I only started as a customer myself after years of hearing great feedback from those I referred to her, after my local groomer retired. Wonderful, beautiful work, and I've paid more for less. Usually needs some lead time (about a week or two) she's busy, as she should be. Now I'll use her till SHE retires!!

There's nothing foggy about this place... her grooming table is the focal point of her business and is clearly visible through the big storefront windows.

Unlike other places(ah-hem, petco, ah-hem), I didn't have to watch my puppy Murphy get dragged into some back room wondering if they are using a machete or a weed wacker to trim my dog.

Debbie is awesome. And when we picked up Murphy he looked like an awesome foggy doggy!

I was very happy with the service I got for my dog at Foggy Doggy. The owner was so nice and very kind to my dog. My dog, who can be fearful, seemed perfectly at ease when I picked her up. I like how the shop is set up, too...The crates are lined up in the big room, so the dogs can look out. The owner let my dog run around, too, with her little dogs.

We will be back.

This place is not more expensive than Pet Grooming Headquarters (approx. $35-40 for a small breed dog) and closer for me. Debbie is such a sweet lady and does such a great job! Her place is cute and I like the fact that she has a high counter so she can allow the doggies to roam around if there aren't any kitties around. I've gone here a few times and will definitely go back when Mr. T needs some grooming.

Debbie is absolutely great with our two little guys. The boys (a yorkie and a brussels griffon) come back smelling clean and looking dapper. She lets all the dogs roam around the shop and play with one another during their stay (provided they're well behaved) and even let's us drop them off before work and will "babysit" them all day until we're ready to pick them up. Fritz and Leo both love going there and start jumping around in the car as we pull up.

We used to live just a few blocks away from Foggy Doggy, but now live all the way across town in the Mission. There's actually another very well-reviewed (4+ stars) groomer less than a block away from us now, but we still make the trek to Cow Hollow to get the little monsters groomed every time.

Would definitely recommend her to anybody looking for great service and a super friendly groomer that our dogs love seeing.
